MONITORING AND REVIEW OF STRATEGIC PLAN	7

INTRODUCTION

The Gingin District Community Resource Centre Incorporated (CRC) is a not-for-profit charitable association incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act 2015 (WA). It was first established in 1999.

CRC is a part of the network of Community Resource Centres that exists across Western Australia and as such is supported by the Western Australian Community Resource Network and the WA State Government.

CRC aims to provide a range of services to the community of Gingin and surrounding areas.

This document sets out our Strategic Plan for the years 2022-2025.

MISSION

Our mission is to meet needs of our local and regional communities by providing access to a range of services, information and training and development opportunities in collaboration with the community, the WA Community Resource Network and other stakeholders.

VISION

Our vision in achieving this mission is to have an innovative, sustainable and interactive community-based centre, providing a wide range of quality services, information and social opportunities in a professional and inclusive environment.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

CRC's operations will be guided by principles of community participation and direction, sustainability, professionalism, customer service, accountability and ethical behaviour.

OBJECTIVES

During the period 2022 to 2025 we will continue to develop a suite of sustainable community services, including:

- Ready access to government and agency information such as Centrelink, Australian Tax Office, Government Access Computer and Veterans Affairs
- Administrative services (photocopying, printing, laminating and secretarial services)
- Community information
- Community events co-ordination
- The facilitation of courier and visiting employment consultancy services
- Internet and technology access
- Education, training and skills development opportunities
- Marketing of local products and other local business supports
- Library access
- Tourism information
- Other appropriate services identified as being required and sustainable.

OPERATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

Geographic area

CRC's operational responsibility covers significant areas of WA's Shire of Gingin and Shire of Chittering. Centred in the Gingin town site, its operations extend as far as Bindoon (22km east of Gingin), Upper Chittering (35km southeast), Neergabby and Woodridge (26km and 40km west), Muchea (26km south) and Wannamal (26km northeast). Lancelin Community Resource Centre services the Lancelin town site, which is approximately 80kms northwest of Gingin, and the two community resource centres share service provision for the intermediate area.

CRC's total client numbers for a single year are estimated at 6212.

Operational centre

CRC's headquarters and operational centre is at 1a Lily King Place, Gingin WA 6503.

The centre comprises a building co-funded with government for CRC purposes on land held by arrangement by the Shire of Gingin.

In addition to the centre, CRC has IT and other equipment and facilities and personnel to enable it to carry out its mission.

Governance and staff

As an incorporated association the CRC is subject to its constitution and the Associations Incorporation Act 2015 (WA).

Our voting membership is open to persons, other than paid staff, who are over the age of fifteen (15) years and who support the objects and charitable purposes of the association.

CRC is governed by a committee of seven members, comprising a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Secretary, Gingin shire representative, Treasurer and community members. Our Committee meets on a bi-monthly basis.

An employed Manager is responsible for CRC's day-to-day operations and reports to the Committee. Other staff members include an Assistant Manager and Community Services Officer and can include trainees and school or other work experience students.

We also rely on a team of dedicated volunteers.

Financing and other supports

CRC receives financial and other supports from various agencies and organisation's for its operations and projects. These include:

- Department of Primary Industries & Regional Development
- WA Community Resource Network
- Services Australia
- Department of Veteran Affairs
- TRANSWA
- C Y O`Connor TAFE
- NEC Broadband for Seniors
- Forrest Personnel

- Shire of Gingin
- Star Track Courier Services
- TNT Courier Services
- RSM Business Local
- Directions Employment
- Australian Tax Office
- Bendigo Bank
- Telstra Prepaid
- Local producers
- Linkwest
- State Library of WA

We also raise revenue by marketing local produce and other items and by charging modest fees for room and equipment use.

The most significant funding source for CRC is from the WA State Government's Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development. This provides funding for our annual operations through the State Government's programme of support for Community Resource Centres in the State. In 2022 the Department confirmed ongoing funding for Community Resource Centres for a further 5 years.

Operational assessment

CRC is generally well appreciated in the Gingin community and surrounds. A survey commissioned by the Western Australian Community Resource Network in October 2021 found that the CRC's client base had an overall high degree of satisfaction with CRC's operations and considered that CRC's staff and volunteers significantly contributed to this result.

Our organisation relies largely on external funding. There has been no indication that major funding avenues will be discontinued. The organisation is generally in sound financial shape.

In addition to its employed staff, CRC relies on volunteers and trainees. CRC is fortunate in having three highly skilled and motivated employed staff. Since CRC's inception the Gingin community has continued to provide sufficient numbers of volunteers and trainees to support its operations and governance.

Crucial to the effectiveness of CRC is its relationship with the Shire of Gingin. CRC carries out and assists with various shire projects and is remunerated by the shire for its involvement. The relationship of CRC with the Shire of Gingin is regarded by CRC as sound.
